Coronavirus and Forbearance Info for Students, Borrowers, and Parents

At the U.S. Department of Education (ED) office of Federal Student Aid, we are monitoring the coronavirus/COVID-19 emergency.

On March 20, 2020, the Secretary of Education directed the office of Federal Student Aid to provide the following relief on ED-held federal student loans:

- suspend loan payments
- stop collections on defaulted loans
- set interest rates to 0% for a period of 60 days

On March 27, 2020, Congress passed, and the president signed into law, the Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act), which provides for the following measures through Sept. 30, 2020.

On Aug. 8, 2020, President Trump directed the Secretary to continue to suspend loan payments, stop collections, and waive interest on ED-held student loans until Dec. 31, 2020.

Below, we have answered questions about these COVID-19 emergency relief measures and the resulting flexibilities for federal student loans.
